

I'm not a bot

Looking forward to hearing Paris Hilton's thoughts on the recent allegations surrounding Ghislaine Maxwell. Apparently she finally cashed out from being involved with Epstein in 2000 but that doesn't seem to be the end of it. One thing is for sure, her responses will provide some much-needed closure for many fans. I'm planning to visit Paris in June and I want to try some new foods, but everything I've heard is about breads, butter, and cheeses. The only French dish I know well is Ratatouille, which isn't exactly representative of the cuisine. I don't mind trying new things, as long as they're not too expensive - I'd be happy to spend around 20-30 per meal. What's weird about eating alone in a fancy restaurant? Sometimes I prefer to travel on my own and at my own pace, so it would be nice to have some time to myself during meals.
